as opposed to more traditional bedside tables. Seating cubes beneath the console pull out to create a homework space or additional playtime seating. Bold stripes and geometric patterns in contrasting scales add visual interest and make the room both youthful and classic.

JUDGES' REMARKS:
"Love! Exceptional use of color and pattern and bespoke detailing on pillows. Great textile choices." — Timothy Whealon
"Lucky boys!" — Jesse Carrier & Mara Miller
"Great details, graphic quality and choice of color and patterns."
— Brian McCarthy

DESIGN CONCEPT:
This project was conceived for a client moving into a new home whose two young boys (ages 4 and 5) would share a room. She wanted to create a fun, upbeat space that would suit them for a long time. Most importantly, she wanted a custom look, not the typical store-bought kids' room. Making the room look larger are two symmetrical upholstered twin beds with round mirrors above and, between the beds, one large console table with wall-mounted lamps,
