BLITHE SPIRIT

A vibrant makeover transforms an Edwardian house in San Francisco into a friendly and festive haven that's ideal for entertaining.

The living room palette is drawn from vintage armchairs covered in Tulu's Lola stripe. "It's the juiciest color combination—like cantaloupe, strawberry, and coconut jelly beans," says designer Julie Kleiner. Made Goods' James mirror reflects the view. Lamp, Kristen Buckingham. OPPOSITE: Oly's Diego bench, covered in Studio Ben's Fuzz, offers extra seating for the frequent large and lively parties in this San Francisco home.
